

The Conning Tower

VACATION DAYS.

III.

PRIDE OF LIFE.

I tramped over the rolling country, late one afternoon,
And stopped to watch a farmer loading hay.
Great, sturdy-muscled fellow, he tossed the spraying forksful high
To his little son atop the broad heap,
Who laughed and did his work as it were joy.
In the house-door leaned a woman, watching,
With that still, deep vicarious pleasure in the strength of men
Only a woman knows.
And over all was that rich, sweet scent of fragrance
With all the warmth of sunlight in its breath.
A grocery cart drove up from town.
In it a bent, white, old man, his knotted hands nervous on the reins.
He looked long, as I had done,
And seemed to me he took on more age by contrast.
At last he spoke, in piping tones—
Even from his voice the years had stolen strength:
"My, I'd like to have another summer in the hayfield!" he said,
"I love the hay."
And I knew all he left unspoken,
For I, too, love the hay.

ALICE.

The campaign managers are like the baseball managers. The result in Maine is highly encouraging to Mr. Vance McCormick, just as the team winning the first three games of a seven-game series is always, take it from the opposing manager, in the disadvantageous position.

As Hughie Keough used to say, "The race is not always to the swift nor the battle to the strong, but that is where to look."

THE TRUCK TALKERS.

"Whoa, whoa, where y' goin'?"
"Why doncha look where y' driving?"
"Why doncha look where y' driving?"
"I wuz in here foist."
"You wuz likeli."
"You're one of dem wise guys, aintche?"
"I'll show ye wot kind of a guy I am, in a minute."
"You will, will yer?"
"Yes I will."
"You will."
"Yes, that's wot I said, I will."
"Y'poor simp."
"Y'poor boob."
"Giddap."
"Giddap."

PRISMS.

The moving-van drivers, as October approaches, have no intention of striking, but such a strike would inconvenience a lot of folks in New York and environs, so the thing is not unlikely to occur.

One of the subway expresses we rode on yesterday seemed to be run by a semi-pro motorman.

A Yonkers tailor announces that he cleans and presses "Pawnee Suits."

LIMITING THE LIABILITY.

NOT RESPONSIBLE for any debts contracted only by myself. THOMAS P. FORD, 38 Grand Ave.

Not since a tennis player, according to one authority, "waded rough shod through a field of contestants" have the metaphors been so rampant as to notice. But "We are going into the heart of the thing," says District Attorney Swann, "and we will endeavor to pluck it out by the roots."

There may be a lot of domestic infelicity in New York, but you'd never suspect it to look at the Fourteenth Street Subway crush of thousands fighting to go home.

To the Tribune Institute: Is there on the market a vacuum cleaner for removing the dust from spinach?

NATATORIAL RHYTHMS.

It's all very well for Archie,
Graceful at verse and at diving,
To write of the rhythm and the swing of the dive and the crawl,
But how about setting MY dives to verse,
Be it never so free?

I stand at the edge, poised,
Up to this point Archie and I are a team;
A swing of the arms and a crouching of the knees—
Then another swing—and another crouch—
Then another again, with a glance behind,
To see whether anyone is looking.

Some one is!
Quickly!

A leap into the air—catching the toe on the board,
Horizontally, with the twelve-ton toe,
Measuring my length, like a petulant child, on the water,
Stinging, adamant water,
Swimming like the "Mary Powell."
Down—down,
Smarting, darts bursting throat and ears,
A frantic kicking of the feet—
A wild waving of impotent hands,
And, after a month or so,
The welcome, slimy feel of the ladder on the toes,
And a snort!

The Democrats are pointing-with-pride to the batting averages of Mr. Triestman Speaker of Texas and Mr. T. R. Cobb of Georgia. And our Party offers in rebuttal that both of the boys are making these records with teams from Republican states. And there, as in most political discussions, you are.

John Desmond, the old Lehigh player whom many of the coaches believed would have been a member of the varsity team last year.—The Tribune.

"What are you doing?" Boy—"Making trousers for orphan boys."

FAMILIAR MISQUOTATIONS.

"For better or for worse."

With bread at ten cents a loaf, the silver lining is that Bread Pudding will cost just as much as food.

The Guilty Feeling.

Last night the air was sweet
And Free,
As it should be in any well organized party.
And the car was running wonderfully.
Ocean Parkway was smooth and not too crowded.
And I did like to see it sliding in under the fenders.
Somehow the accelerator pedal
Got way down,
And the speedometer needle
Got way up;
And then we saw
A top
Just ahead.
We slowed down and went past him at seventeen miles an hour
And he didn't even look at us.
And then I knew and seemed to feel,
In a dawning whir and buzz,
That I needed a cop and an automobile
To see what the G. F. was.

C. L. F.

The Guilty Feeling is a thing this department has been discussing for a long time, and often, with the conviction that the perfect expression of it had been uttered, we had decided to abandon the theme.

But now, for instance, there is the way the Hon. William H. Taft must feel when he reads about this suit against Mr. Charles F. P. A.

FLEAS MAY CAUSE PLAGUE'S SPREAD

Dr. Emerson Announces
Scientists' New Theory
Regarding Paralysis.

SLIGHT INCREASE IN NEW CASES HERE

Thirty-six Additional Victims
Are Reported, Five
More than Wednesday.

Five more cases of infantile paralysis were reported yesterday than on Wednesday, but the increase is not considered significant, though the cases in Manhattan numbered nineteen, in comparison to Wednesday's nine. The total was thirty-six, comfortably below the daily figure of forty set by the Department of Health as a satisfactory average for the week.

For the first five days of this week the average has been thirty-four; for the corresponding period last week it was fifty. Commissioner Emerson does not think the total for the week will exceed 240. The total number of cases reported is 8,850 and the deaths 2,149. One hundred and sixteen patients were reported yesterday as having recovered, bringing the total up to 1,791.

The Department of Health is actively seeking the methods by which the disease is transmitted and is prosecuting quacks who pretend they have found a cure. Two convictions have been obtained, and a campaign is being planned which will result in several arrests within a few days.

Fleas May Spread Disease. Although Commissioner Emerson is still convinced that human beings are the most common means of spreading the disease, he announced yesterday that rats were under suspicion. Various scientific bodies are engaged in experiments to learn whether fleas on rats can be responsible for the erratic spread of the epidemic.

"The flea theory," said Commissioner Emerson, "is based on careful observation. Fleas coming from rats may have spread infantile paralysis. I believe the idea came first from Dr. Frank Richards, secretary of the Massachusetts Department of Health. But it should be distinctly understood the theory of the flea having spread the disease has not been proved."

Commissioner Emerson thinks the return of the children to school will be accomplished without great confusion. Children who have returned to New York within two weeks of the opening of school from an infected locality will have to furnish health certificates.

Those living in an apartment where the disease has developed within two weeks of the opening of school will be excluded, but others in the same house will not be barred.

Health Department records for the state, exclusive of New York City, yesterday showed fifty-four new cases and eight deaths, an increase of four cases and five deaths. New cases were reported from the following counties: Westchester, eleven; Suffolk, seven; St. Lawrence, six; Sullivan, five; Otsego, four; Cayuga, three; Albany, two; Tompkins, Chenango, Delaware, Greene, Schoharie, Dutchess, Oneida, Rensselaer and Columbia, one each.

Thirty-one new cases, and four new deaths, were reported from the New Jersey State Health Board yesterday. The new municipalities affected are Maywood Borough, Bergen County; Chesterfield and Palmyra townships, Burlington County; Independence township, Warren County.

Today's new cases are: Newark, five; Elizabeth, three; Trenton, Ocean City, Kearny, Wall township, two each; Maywood Borough, Chesterfield township, Chester township, Lumberton township, Palmyra township, Bloomfield, Orange, Hampton Borough, Belmar, Long Branch, Rockaway township, Fairmont Borough, Lakewood, Linden township, Independence township, one each.

One new case was that of Constantine Ingalls, the twelve-year-old daughter of Percy Ingalls, of Kew-Forest Park, East Orange, who is treasurer of the Public Service Corporation.

Cases and deaths were reported in this city yesterday at these addresses: 1513 Park Avenue, one; 1514 East 151st Street, one; 1515 East 151st Street, one; 1516 East 151st Street, one; 1517 East 151st Street, one;
